PROJECTS

Faye's Desktop Environment Portfolio

Jan 2025-Apr 2025

Tech: HTML, CSS, JavaScript

<https://fayeks.github.io/Faye-s-Desktop-Portfolio/>

- Designed and developed a personal portfolio website styled to resemble a desktop environment, including interactive windows, a taskbar, color themes, draggable elements on desktop, a tic-tac-toe game and more
- Built with only pure HTML, CSS and Javascript to demonstrate my understanding of the core web development fundamentals.
- Implemented dynamic navigation and hover effects to enhance user interaction and experience.
- Ensured the website is responsive, providing a seamless experience on both desktop and mobile devices.

Film Forecast

Feb 2025-Apr 2025

Tech: HTML, CSS, React, Typescript Axios, NPM, API Integration

<https://fayeks.github.io/FilmForecast/>

- Developed a dynamic weather app that provides real-time weather updates and recommends movies based on the current weather conditions (e.g., action films for sunny weather, romance films for rainy weather, etc.).
- Integrated a weather API to fetch accurate weather data and a movie API to fetch personalized movie suggestions.
- Designed and implemented a user-friendly interface using React for efficient component-based architecture. Managed state and UI updates using React's useState and useEffect hooks and enhanced user experience by implementing custom CSS styling and animations.

Travlo

Apr 2025-May 2025

Tech: HTML, TailwindCSS, React, TypeScript

<https://travlotravel.netlify.app/>

- Designed and developed a responsive travel website showcasing curated destinations, user-friendly filters, and dynamic travel cards.
 - Built with React and Typescript to ensure type safety, reusable components, and seamless state management.
